Re'ut Chapter is pleased to present an evening with Faye Schulman.

Faye was a teenager with an interest in photography in her home town on the Russian-Polish border when the Nazis invaded. She escaped the Nazis and joined the Partisans as a fighter, nurse and photographer, living in the woods and surviving against the odds for years. Faye is the only known Jewish partisan to document the WWII partisan experience in photographs.

Faye is a remarkable Holocaust survivor, author and lecturer. Her photographs are on exhibit at museums around the world. Faye is also the author of "A Partisan's Memoir: Women of the Holocaust" (Second Story Press), and the subject of several documentary films about her experiences in the war.
